BRUCE JAMES SADDENED BY PASSING OF NEVADA PIONEER J.A. TIBERTI

WASHINGTON--Public Printer of the United States and Nevadan Bruce James released the following statement today in reaction to the passing of Las Vegas Developer Jelindo Angelo (J.A.) Tiberti.

“Today we have lost one of our state’s true pioneers. J.A. Tiberti’s contributions to Nevada in the last half century have touched the lives of so many of us who call Las Vegas home, as well as millions of visitors. J.A. embodied the spirit of our state and the country. Coming to Nevada in 1941, he built a business and planted roots in our state that are still strong today. J.A.’s entrepreneurship and leadership have made an unforgettable difference in the daily lives of Nevadans everywhere. I am proud to have been able to call him my friend. He will be missed, but his spirit will live on in the many lives he has touched through his work in building schools, hotels, department stores and so many other community projects throughout Southern Nevada. My heart goes out to his family, friends and colleagues during this time of sorrow.”
